APRIL 2022 Newsletter

President's Corner

Greetings Quilters,

I think we need to change the March saying to in like a lamb and out like a lion. But, I am optimistic that spring can't be far away now. At least we are getting a few warmer days. And the daffodils are blooming.

Sherry Burke has once again done a fantastic job recruiting the following proposed slate of officers for us.

- President - Pat Massamini
- Vice President - Candy Stiffler
- Secretary - Carol Clarke, Assistant - Ruth Crovo
- Treasurer - Lisa Schober, Assistant - Kris Smith
- Programs - Debbie Brobst, Assistant - Julia Cohoon
- Outreach- Jan Bohn
- Education and Preservation- Jo Verne, Assistant - Lou Diefenderder

This slate of officers will be introduced at the April meeting for voting at the May meeting, and, if elected, installation at the August meeting. Many thanks to the members who have accepted a position on this proposed slate of officers.

Don't forget, the Outreach Sew In is an RSVP event this year. There will be pizza for all participants, but you must let Chris Dorset know in advance. See the details on page 9.

I hope you'll join us for Lilo Bowman's lecture this month. I have heard her speak and she has great organizing tips. Either join us in the Trappe fire house or on Zoom if you prefer.

Keep stitching,

Sharon

Table Talk

Spring is here! Along with the buds on the trees and the blooming daffodils comes spring cleaning. Are you inspired to reorganize your sewing space? Bring your “never gonna do it” projects to the Free Table and someone will take it home. Our last meeting inspired a large turnout and the Free Table got a lot of attention. Everyone is excited about the way forward.

Hope to see you at the back tables soon.

BAYSIDE MEETING MINUTES

March 9, 2022

A quorum being present, President Sharon Miller called the meeting of the Bayside Quilt Guild to order. The meeting was held at the Trappe Volunteer Fire Department.

Sharon pointed out the new curtains in the fire hall that were made by members of the guild. Lou Diefenderfer said the curtains enabled the fire department to save a substantial amount of money and were much appreciated.

Chris Dorset made a correction to the minutes of the previous meeting , stating that kits will be available for making outreach quilts. Minutes were approved as corrected.

Lisa Schober gave the treasurer's report via Zoom. We have two new members, a discrepancy in the Ocean City retreat billing from the Dunes was noted and is being investigated and we are still operating at a loss.

Two guests were introduced and welcomed.

Announcements: Anita Brayton reminded members of the 30 year challenge to commemorate the guild's 30th Anniversary this year; guidelines will be in the newsletter.

Visitors Loraine Sincavage and Rose Hankins are selling raffle tickets for a drawing on Saturday for a quilt from the estate of Pat Speckman, a member of the Queen Anne Quilt Guild. The proceeds will benefit Haven Ministries.

Chris Dorset, Outreach Chairman, read a thank you note from Hospice for the Veterans Quilts. Outreach needs Children's Quilts; 38"x38" would be a good size. Sew In will be in place of a May meeting. If you piece a top, you get pizza; if you get a kit, you get pizza; if you show up and sew, you get pizza.

Victoria McConnell thanked Jeanne Hechmer for her show at FACES. Check FACES Facebook page for new classes. Lou Diefenderfer will be teaching the Swoon block on March 19. Jeanne Hechmer is teaching "Vintage to Modern" on April 2 and Candy Stifler is teaching a Tile class on June 25. Victoria has copies of Quiltfolk, featuring Maryland quilters, for sale.

Debbie Brobst introduced our speaker, Gyleen Fitzgerald. Gyleen presented a very entertaining and educational program as well as showing us a large assortment of her quilts. Gyleen will be teaching a workshop tomorrow.

After a short break, members shared their quilts at Show and Tell. Among the many quilts made by guild members, some were "Gyleen-inspired," some were from the Modern Bee Challenge and others were "how I got through Covid" quilts.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:15

Respectfully Submitted, Carol Clarke, Secretary

Zoom Invitations

We will be sending all future Zoom invitations from the Bayside Quilters Zoom email address, baysidequilterszoom@gmail.com. Please make sure Bayside Quilters Zoom is a safe address for you so you don't miss any invitations to Zoom meetings.

Important Deadlines

The following are gentle reminders of some deadlines. Adhering to these dates make all our volunteer jobs easier.

Newsletter articles – 20th of month. They will appear in the newsletter that is sent out a week before regular meeting.

Reimbursement forms with invoices and/or receipts for Bayside expenses – Within 30 days of expense.

Reimbursement checks to you – Please cash within 30 days of receipt.

Payment for Workshops, Camps – Minimum of 10 days before event. Retreats will set a date that will be announced as needed.

Thirty!!! Year Challenge

Can you believe it? Bayside Quilters has been active, even during a world wide pandemic, for thirty years and it's time for a quilt challenge to mark the anniversary.

SIZE: The challenge quilt size can be as small as 12" on one side to throw/lap (50" x 65"). The quilt won't be disqualified if your entry is smaller or larger. Quilts will be divided into size groups at the reveal finale. Size is NOT a factor in judging.

DESIGN: The pattern, design, style, color is the makers choice. You get to decide what to make but it must be a quilt; 3 layers of materials sewn together. It must be finished. No dolls, stuffed animals, quilted books, bags/purse-you get the idea.

DEADLINE: Delivered to Challenge Committee no later than the day before the anticipated Thirty-year celebration in August, 2022. Quilts will be displayed and judged at that time.

JUDGING: Viewers Choice.

To inspire your creativity you may want to start with some 30 year anniversary symbols. Traditional gem is pearl, modern is diamond. Color is green, flower is lily or sweet pea.

Good Luck

P.S. I'll need some help later. If you have questions contact Nita Brayton, 410-725-4323 or nitabnitab@yahoo.com

HAPPY BIRTHDAY EUNICE!

Bayside Quilt Guild member Eunice Knauer recently celebrated her 90th birthday. Her family gathered for a party with dinner, cake, balloons and good wishes for Eunice for many more happy years to come. And, boy, does Eunice have plans for those years!

She's busy with her family, her church, her community, the Guild and her pet project – a sewing group in Trappe that named itself “Granny’s Girls” after her. I’d heard about this group and caught up with Eunice at the Girl’s weekly sewing session. The 11 ladies who meet on Tuesday afternoons, range from beginning quilters to experienced fiber artists. Eunice started the group to teach quilting to ladies who couldn’t make it to Bayside meetings. She remains their guiding spirit with able assists from daughters Shirley Windsor and Lou Diefenderfer.

Home for the group is a small brick rancher behind the Emmanuel Wesleyan Church on Route #50 in Trappe. The house had served as a parsonage until Rev. Robert Hawkins loaned the building to the group when he moved his residence, but not his ministry, to Salisbury four years ago. During those four years, the group has learned about quilting, become united in friendship and produced more than 100 quilts which have been given to people in need.

The recipients aren’t necessarily members or beneficiaries of any particular charity. The folks who get the quilts could need a quilt for warmth or for the happiness a quilt brings to a soul in distress. Eunice says her giving list comes to her by word of mouth – a pastor, a teacher, a fireman, community leader or a good neighbor just puts a word in her ear. There are no geographical limits, though the southern tier of the mid-shore receives many gifts from the Girls.

While I visited with the group I was struck by the smiles and fellowship uniting the women. I have to say, I was totally in awe of the fabric folded, color coordinated and cut into useful pieces that is stacked on tables and shelves in every corner of every room! “Good Grief!!” I asked Eunice “How did you afford all of this material?” “It’s all been donated”, she said. “Not a piece was purchased!” Outside of the occasional purchased roll of batting, Eunice operates on goodwill, gifts, and the overflow and left-behinds of Bayside’s much-loved Free Table.

Every bag that Eunice and helpers retrieve after Bayside’s monthly meetings arrives at the parsonage to be sorted and used in quilts or passed on to other agencies. Fabric scraps and pieces which the Girls can’t use are taken to Halo, a community assistance program in Salisbury which sells bundles to fabric recycling companies. Other donations are sent to the Robin Hood thrift shop in Cambridge which supports the local hospital. Nothing is wasted!

Is this a story with a happy ending or what? Eunice had two cakes made by her granddaughter Kari – each one big enough to feed an entire village. Incredible quilts are being made in a little house in Trappe. The generosity of Bayside’s members is fueling numerous other good works. Lastly, but not least, Eunice Knauer, a 90-year-old dynamo has proved that one determined person can bring welcome change to the world one quilt at a time.

Lecture by Lilo Bowman

Lilo Bowman is now editor-in-chief of TheQuiltShow.com. Her work has been varied, often challenging, but always creative. Since early childhood, she has been instilled with the desire for and love of doing something with your hands, learned by observing the varied and beautiful items crafted by both of her grandmothers. Raised in a German culture, Lilo was always keenly aware of and fascinated with objects (whether utilitarian or decorative) that were attractively displayed while still being orderly.

Food, travel (both as a military wife and tourist), and curiosity about other cultures have also played a large role in shaping Lilo’s sense of taste and design and her understanding of how others prioritize the items they choose to have in their homes.

“Small Spaces: Tiny Studios”

Don't let the small size of your space keep you from having hours of fun; it's about learning how to prioritize. Let me show you some creative ways to utilize every square inch of your playground.

And, an added bonus, two members will each win a copy of her recent book, “Love Your Creative Space,” A Visual Guide to Creating an Inspiring & Organized Studio Without Breaking the Bank.

Lecture by Nicole Moore

Sewing has always been a part of Nicole’s life for as long as she could remember. When Nicole was young, her mother sewed many of her outfits. She has always been inspired by sewing!

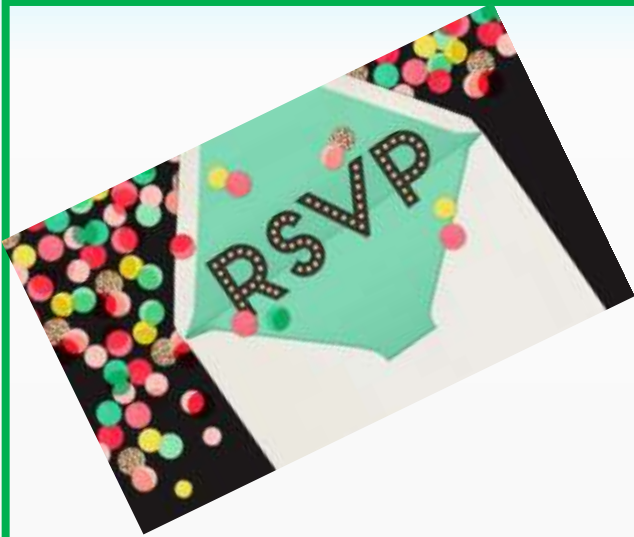

Nicole didn’t start “seriously sewing” until she transitioned away from her full-time corporate job (back in 2013). It all started with craft shows, branched out to Etsy, add some boutique shops and eventually Amazon Handmade! Mix in a popular website with modern patterns and projects, a viral YouTube Channel, brand partnerships and a hyper active Instagram! This all sums up what Nicole Moore has created in just a few short years...

THE BEST-MADE BAGS

Learn all about the secrets of what makes a quality handmade bag. In this lecture, we will review a large variety of stabilizers and interfacings that provide structure and durability to your handmade bags. We will also review a variety of bag hardware to help take your creations to the next level! Each audience member will receive a free swatch of common interfacings to help them remember it’s particular use!

May 11, 2022 at 9:30 AM Trappe Volunteer Fire Department Outreach Sew In Outreach has dug into what's left of Chris' stash and we've come up with plenty of children's quilt kits for Sew In. They will be simple, easy (i.e. you can talk, sew and/or eat at the same time) quilts. One Patch Quilts and Chris' 4 Hr. Quilt (Turning 20 blocks, 5 FQ's) quilts. We'll have a few adult quilt kits (some cut), again One Patch (Veteran's), Chris' 4 Hr. Quilt (5 or 7 FQ's) and Jelly Rolls (several patterns).

Most of the details have been worked out! May 11, 9 AM until... Trappe Volunteer Fire Company's meeting room.

Here's what you need to do:

Sew a top, one of Outreach's kits or use your own stash. You can do this at home and bring into Outreach that day or sit and sew, earn pizza and our thanks.

Sew a top, make the entire quilt. You can do this at home and bring into Outreach that day, earn pizza and our super thanks.

OR bring a completed quilt (newish), earn pizza and our thanks.

No matter what, contribute a top or finished quilt and you earn pizza. Make it at home or at the Fire House. Earn pizza and know that your contribution is much appreciated by our community.

Outreach will also have a few (not many) small projects such as make and stuff mammo/veteran's pillows, but you must reserve them.

Outreach will have available but you have to ask... batting, backing for the small children's kits and labels.

If using Outreach's kits, and would like the kit before May Sew In, please let Chris know what you'd like to work on before the April meeting or email her chdorset@atlanticb.net. She will bring a few kits to the April meeting.

No matter what... this is an RSVP event. You must let Chris know if you need a kit at the April meeting or if you need one at Sew In. Register between now and April 30th! We'll need to order pizza, if there's extra money left over, we'll add salads. PLEASE let Chris know if you'd rather not have pizza. Our choices will be from Domino's: Cheese, Pepperoni, Philly Cheesesteak, Ham & Pineapple, Spinach & Feta. Any questions? Ask Chris

OUTREACH NEEDS: Talbot Hospice House uses these banners for the doors to Veteran's rooms. They are not supposed to go home with the families, however, it happens. We need 4 of these made now, while we wait for several more patches to be ordered and delivered. If you'd like to make one, please let Chris know and she will get the patch to you. If you can make the banner, that would be great, the patch (and label) can be sewn on before delivering to Hospice House. Hope you can help. chdorset@atlanticbb.net

Service Branch Banner for Hospice

Finished size 22" x 7"

4 - red 1 ½" X 15 ½" strips, 3 - white 1 ½" X 15 ½" strips, 1- 7 ½" square. 23" x 8" backing (Fat Quarter may work), 2 - 2 ½" X WOF strips binding. Use left-over binding for hanging sleeve. 23" x 8" batting.

Assemble the red and white strips according to the picture. Press seams to the red (dark). Apply Service Branch patch to the 7 ½" square. Sew strips to square. Press to square (dark).

Make quilt sandwich and quilt as desired, using a walking foot. A wavy pattern in the white looks good. Quilt around the service patch. In the ditch is fine, or a zigzag over the embroidered outer edge of the patch is fine. Make hanging sleeve. They will be hanging these with wreath hangers in the center of the square and they will be displayed vertically. 2 - folded 2 ½" squares works great in the corners for hanging sleeve, then apply binding. Apply label.

Note: This is a real good test of your ¼" seam allowance. If the strips fit the 7 ½" square, you're doing everything right! Congrats!
