

FEBRUARY 2020 NEWSLETTER

President's Corner

Greetings, Quilters!

The chill of the Maryland winter has set in, providing time for stash perusal and some thought. It would be fun to start something new, but what about this lovingly accumulated stash that took so long to build up? And where is that special piece of fabric that I know I have because I bought it for this specific pattern, and where did I put that pattern? Clearly, there's a problem here! As I peruse through Stashbuster sites, pictures and pattern suggestions, a common theme emerges: this requires some organization of said stash. The displayed projects look enticing and not too complicated, but they all look color coordinated and well thought out. This will not be easy to achieve with my haphazard fabric assortment, so some organization will be required, and this is something I have been soooooo reluctant to even contemplate. I remember attending Peggy's presentation at the Guild some time ago with her suggestions for fabric organization and did not follow up on it--there was nothing to make! Fortunately, Alice's class is coming just in time and I must do some sorting to be able to participate, so this is very timely motivation. I hope to come prepared and that means I will have moved forward on the organizing front and will get to attend a fun class!

Thanks go to Nita for managing the Soup Cozy Challenge. Every effort we make to help our community has value to someone and may help to make life a little better. I also enjoyed the take-aways Nita shared from her visit to the Houston Quilt Festival, especially Andrew Lee's and Glema's stories. Quilting offers many opportunities for different people; it may be community support, such as Outreach and the many people it supports, the opportunity to acquire or improve skills, a chance to play with color and shapes and many more.... I value the opportunity to make something and then share it with those with similar interests and share their insight.

Looking forward to seeing you in February!

charity quilts with social interaction and a great lunch and that's the February meeting.

No Free Table, raffle, or garage sale will be in effect for this meeting.

March brings us a garage sale of Jo Verne's organization of her sewing room, Elaine Neale's purge project and Alice Kish's constant editing. We are getting ready for our tables in March. April will be Jackie Grainger with a sale table of goodies. Free table returns in March.

BAYSIDE QUILT GUILD

January 8, 2020

The meeting was called to order at 9:35 by Vice President Alice Kish. The November minutes were approved.

New Business – Alice Kish, subbing for Sharon Miller, reported that the May 2021 Quilt Show will be a form of antique quilts at the 2 churches in Oxford, perhaps with a fund raiser. The current show format is too difficult to achieve. A fundraising chair to spearhead ideas is needed, please let Liz Orsini (emorsini@gmail.com) know if you're interested.

Membership has a New Rule. Sharon Perry informed us that as of next month members will be entered into the name tag raffle ONLY IF THEY ARE WEARING A TRUE GENUINE NAME TAG. Using the paper one on the membership table will no longer count as a name tag. Guests and visitors were introduced.

Gail Benjamin thanked all for the contributions to the Talbot Interfaith Shelter given at our holiday luncheon. She was at TIS on Christmas morning and said everyone was most appreciative of their gifts.

Chris Dorset, Outreach read thank-yous from various organizations who receive our quilts. She has veterans pillow kits to be sewn at her Outreach table. The February Meeting is our Annual Outreach Sew-In where we all sew for Outreach. There will be kits, hand sewing and 20 Brown Bag Give Aways – 10 given before lunch and 10 after. The bags contain at least 3 fat quarters, may a panel – good surprises. It's always a fun meeting and you have the satisfaction of completing something that will be well appreciated by others.

Kris Smith reminded us of Winter Camp, held at the Trappe Firehouse January 28, 29, 30. Contact her to sign up – kris.smith@gmail.com.

Retreat Bee has been changed to the 1st Tuesday of the month. It is held at the Royal Oak Community United Church, 6968 Bellevue Road, Royal Oak from 9:30 – 3. Just bring your project, machines, extension cord, lunch etc. Irons and tables are there.

Ocean City Retreat Is On!! – February 29 – March 4. Come have fun in Ocean City! Contact Jan Bohn (410 822 4688, fudgebohn@yahoo.com) or Carol Clake (410 745 9489, cclarke5846@yahoo.com)

Kitty Reiser is our new Treasurer. Reports will be forthcoming as she's still getting Quick Books organized. Chris Dorset will be February Treasurer of the Month while Kitty is away.

Jacque Granger reminded us all of the St. Vincent DePaul dining cards which can be purchased for $25.00. The cards give 10% discounts on food at 15 local restaurants. All of the purchase money goes to St. Vincent DePaul's charitable missions. The cards can be bought on-line at <https://svdpeastonmd.org/purchase-a-dining-out-card> or at the St. Vincent DePaul shop Tuesdays 1-4pm or Saturdays 9-noon (29533 Canvasback Dr., Easton).

Kay Butler showed us the raffle quilt made by 12 ladies using a Susan McElvey pattern. Tickets are $5.00 each.

FACES is having UFO days, January 13,14 and 15. Just join FACES and it's $20.00.

Marti Chamberlain will be teaching a Star Signature quilt, an original design, at FACES on February 8th, 10 – 4, $45, pattern $8. Call Kay Butler (410 829 5136) to sign up, for supply list or more information. It's a perfect beginner project.

Lou Diefenderfer won the Free Class Raffle. Edna Bennett won the name tag raffle.

Anita Brayton introduced Linda Mastro from Empty Bowls. Nita had introduced a soup cozy contest – prize for most cozies made – but some contributed cozies and didn't put their names on the contribution! So, the prize, 2 tickets to the Empty Bowls Dinner, was given to the one she knew to have made the most – Debbie Brobst. Debbie declined the prize as she'd already purchased tickets. The prize, which morphed into 4 tickets was then given to Kathy Arthur (2 tickets) and Su Jusell-Lappin (2 tickets). Nita thanked all who made cozies. They will be sold for $8.00 each at the dinner. The dinner is February 23 at Emmanuel Lutheran Church. Purchase tickets by check ($20.00, MSCF-Empty Bowls, 102 E. Dover St., Easton, MD 21601) or online at (<https://talbotcountyemptybowls.org/#how-we-help-modal>)

January Minutes (Continued)

Shirley Windsor told us about Eunice Knauer's Granny's quilters. It started about 3 years ago to pass on her knowledge of quilting. It meets at the parsonage of the Wesleyan Chapel in Trappe. The group has grown to 9 ladies and 6 young people who come when time allows. Shirley says 'We thank everyone including your free table for things given to us, fabric, batting, 2 sewing machines, magazines, cutting matt, even volunteers to teach us new things. Outreach has also helped us! We work on quilt tops for outreach as well as our own projects. From the back room where I sew its sounds like children at recess! What a good time we have. We met every Tuesday from 2 to 6:00. All are welcome to stop by to say hello!'

Candy Stiffler and Quilt Vine has a BOM (Block of the Month) coming starting in April, running for 6 months. A block will be available on the last Saturday of the month; there will be instructional videos. Details at Quilt Vine in Trappe!

Lou Diefenderfer gave us updates of upcoming classes and said there are still places in Collette's Thursday class.

Collette Metcalf, one of our own, spoke to us about her quilting journey. Even though born in Ireland, she's been Americanized – she calls batting 'batting' and not the English/Irish/European 'wadding'! Her talk was well received.

Show and tell gave us lots of ideas.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:50am.

Respectfully submitted, Jan Bohn, Secretary

We have quilts that need labels (a few more). We have beginner and basic quilt top kits made up and ready to go (lots and lots). We have breast cancer pillows to finish. We need Veteran’s Pillows made. We have burp cloths and taggies kits!! And a few walker bag kits! We have..... if we don’t have what you would like to do, let us know, it will be ready for you Wednesday morning!! Bring your sewing machine and tools, we really need quilt tops made.

This year will be a deli lunch. Sodas and crackers are available at the Fire House. If you’d like to contribute something special to share with the rest of us, please bring. Thank you ladies!

Workshop: February 13, 9:30AM-4PM, $40

Alice Kish

“Soul Searching a la Kathy Doughty”

Original Photo: Mary Kay Davis

“At some point in time we all start with a bit of a blank page. We start accumulating fabrics for a variety of reasons. Soon we have fabrics folded, stacked, jammed, shoved, drawered or shelved in baskets, boxes and bags. Every precious piece has meaning and we continue to hunt down every elusive bit we can to make up the perfect stash. Well...I say start using that stash!” Kathy Doughty

Come join Alice as she helps us work through this great stash busting quilt.

Lecture: March 11, 9:30AM

Bonnie Dwyer

Bonnie loves to share her quilt and fabric collections, quilt history knowledge, and her quilt making expertise with interested groups, whether it is a hands-on workshop, a display of historic quilts, or a themed trunk show.

Bonnie is traveling from central Maine to share her story!

A Century+ of American Quilts

This trunk show includes examples of quilts from mid-19th through mid-20th Century. Bonnie brings a minimum of 25 quilts from her own collection that are representative of American quilting trends spanning 100 years. Participants are urged to bring quilts for discussion.

Workshop: March 12, 9:30AM-2:30PM, $40

Bonnie Dwyer

Pickup Stix

This fun nine-block wall hanging top can be completed in an afternoon. The slashing technique can be simple, as shown here, or made more complex by adding a third or fourth “stick” in each block. Or, you may decide to piece the “sticks” to add interest. The pictured quilt was made with all solid fabrics, but a different look will be achieved by using prints. It’s your choice!

It helps to bring your sense of play to this workshop. This is very much an exercise in letting go of one’s desire for precision piecing! It’s best to approach this workshop with an open, free-wheeling attitude! This workshop is meant to be FUN!

NOTE: If a class is not sold out two months ahead, it will be opened up to other area quilt guilds. This policy will apply to all classes going forward.

Lecture: April 8, 9:30AM

Marisela Rumberg

"Legends, Stories, Traditions, and Quilts"

Marisela is an award winning quilter and teacher. Quilting was once a hobby but now it's her passion and she loves to say "I'm a quilter."

Marisela has won awards at many quilt shows and has been featured in quilt shows around the world, including at the Houston International Quilt Festival, the Patchwork and Quilt Expo in Mexico, the Quilt and Patchwork Festival in Grammado, Brazil, The Festival of Quilts in Birmingham, England, Quilt Expo Beaujolais in France and at the International Quilt Festival in Suzdal, Russia.

She is a member of Studio Fiber Arts at the Workhouse Arts Center in Lorton, Virginia, where I currently create and exhibit my art, and recently became a Certified Zentangle Teacher.

My classes and workshops are designed to inspire and set your inner artist free.

Workshop: April 9, 9:30AM-4PM, $40

Marisela Rumberg

"Quilt Your Own Quilts"

If you don't want to keep sending your quilt tops to someone else to quilt them, this workshop is for you. I will teach you all my tips and secrets for you to be able to quilt your own quilts at home in your domestic sewing machine. Learn the difference between Walking Foot Quilting and Free Motion Quilting and never be scared again of ruining your quilt tops.

The class combines both walking foot and free motion quilting techniques.

They Couldn't Vote, but...

"1920 Challenge"

In honor of this year being the 100th anniversary of women's suffrage, Bayside is inviting all members to participate in a quilt challenge. Your challenge leaders have selected 15 period blocks, both pieced and appliqued, and we invite you to adapt, interpret or reproduce one or more of these blocks in a small challenge quilt.

The only parameter for the challenge other than the blocks is the quilt size. It must be no bigger than 160" in circumference, e.g., 40"x40," 20"x60," 30"x50," a 50" diameter circle, a hexagon with 25" sides.

The due date for the entries will be the August regular meeting event. The entries will be judged, and there will be prizes for the top three winners. So get those creative juices flowing and join the fun celebrating our hard won right to vote!

The chosen blocks will be sent to all members in a separate email. When you get it you will see that they are "old time patterns" from a long out-of-print book, 101 Patchwork Patterns by Ruby McKim. Be sure to read the descriptions!

4-H Thank You to Lou Diefenderfer and Bayside Volunteers

I can't tell you how many record books include members mentioning how helpful the Bayside Quilters have been in helping them develop new sewing skills. Thank you and all of your fellow quilters for making time to share your skills with our 4-H members. I'm more of a "survival seamstress" and severely limited in my skills or artistry. (I blame my mean Home Ec. teacher from 6th-8th grade!) I really appreciate your help and support for the sewing projects and for all the other things you do that don't even involve sewing! You are really a blessing to our program.

Thanks!
