OCTOBER 2021 Newsletter

President's Corner

Greetings Quilters,

For those of you who attended last month's meeting, you know what a fantastic presentation we had from our own Alice Kish. Thank you, Alice, for the great show and tell of your quilts and your life over the last year or so. And for all the fun door prizes—which even included a loaf of sour dough bread!!! For those who missed it, I can't begin to describe how prolific Alice has been and how much fun this lecture was. Be sure to check out the pictures on Facebook. And, many thanks to Kay Butler for the pictures.

Lou Diefenderfer has asked our Bayside members to fill a half bushel basket with art supplies for the 4-H silent auction at their Harvest Festival later this month. Please bring donations to the October 13 meeting and let's help her fill that basket to overflowing. (See page 6 for some ideas on what they need.) If you want to give money instead, Lou will do the shopping.

There are still some spots left in the October sew in supporting the Trappe Volunteer Fire Department. See the information on page 6 if you want to join us. A group of us had a great time last month making ruler bags. It's always a fun two days of stitching with friends.

We have an in person lecture this month by Julia Graves of Special Occasion Quilts. Do come and support our speaker.

What a beautiful fall we are having with the still warm, sunny days and the cooler, brisker mornings and evenings. It's getting time to pull that favorite couch quilt over your toes in the evening.

Keep stitching,

Sharon

BAYSIDE MEETING MINUTES

September 8, 2021

A quorum of members being present, the monthly meeting of Bayside Quilters, held at Trappe VFD, was called to order at 9:30 a.m. by Sharon Miller, President

Sharon reminded us that this is the last month to pay dues. The Directory of members is available for downloading with or without pictures. For those people not having a printer or not able to download the file, a printed copy will be provided, on request, for $5.00. Discussion ensued regarding whether or not the cost of having a printed copy was part of our dues and should therefore be provided free of charge. Sharon explained that the board felt this was a way to reduce expenses. If anyone has difficulty making this method work, Sharon asked they let someone on the board know so it can be revisited.

Following a motion by Lou Diefenderfer, the minutes of the previous meeting were unanimously approved.

Lisa Schober, Treasurer gave financial report for the fiscal year ending August 31.

Committee Reports and announcements were made as follows:

Kate Ousler reported that Alice Kish will be giving door-prizes during her presentation and everyone is invited to enter.

Kay Butler and Victoria McConnell reported that the Fiber Arts Center will be showcasing "200 Years of Solid Color Quilts: A Quilt Study" from October 1-December 31. In addition there are several class offerings coming up and Bayside members are always welcome.

Carol Clarke announced that registration is now open for the Ocean City Retreat that will take place February 20-24, 2022. A deposit is needed no later than November 17, 2021.

Chris Dorset reported on items made by members for Outreach, read thank you notes and showed a pattern for 'fidget mats'. Anyone interested in making these should contact Chris.

Debbie Brobst announced upcoming programs - October, Julia Graves from Leesburg, VA will present "Make It Your Own — Design Guidelines for Quilters" and in November, we will have a Zoom lecture and trunk show on "Visualizing Quilts" by Ann Shaw. We are good for programs through January. If anyone has suggestions for a program, text or e-mail Debbie.

Sharon Miller announced that two quilt tops were donated for a silent auction, the free table is back and Nita has a card for Sherry if anyone has not yet signed it.

A presentation of "Something Old, Something New" was given by our own Alice Kish. Alice kept us entertained with tales of her quilting journey through Covid. As she shared the stories behind her beautiful quilts, she stopped and drew names for door-prizes, which she provided, ranging from a loaf of homemade sourdough bread to unassembled blocks from block exchanges she has participated in, (thereby clearing out her own sewing room). Using "Productive Avoidance", i.e. starting a new project to avoid finishing something else, Alice managed to maintain a supply of UFO's despite all that she accomplished.

Sharon Miller acknowledged our guest, Pauline Flynn, who has moved here from New Mexico.

Show and Tell followed a short break.

The Meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will take place October 13 at Trappe.

Respectfully Submitted, Carol Clarke, Secretary

Make It Your Own – Design Guidelines for Quilters
Lecture by Julia Graves

Hi, I'm Julia Graves, a quilter, teacher and artist, and owner of Special Occasion Quilts (soquilts.com). I did my apprenticeship as a quilter by making a quilt for each of my nieces and nephews (I should have counted them all before I made this promise to them – there were 35!). They got to choose their colors, so I greatly expanded my repertoire of color schemes!

A highlight of my career so far has been as Artist in Residence at Empty Spools Seminars at Asilomar CA in 2019. I was scheduled to be an instructor there teaching Amazing Abstracts in 2021 (darn Covid!) but am happy to say I am booked there again in April 2022 and teaching with Hudson River Valley Art Workshops in December 2022.

Make It Your Own – Design Guidelines for Quilters

Who hasn't loved a pattern, but wanted to make it in different colors or a different size? Or had ideas for quilts but didn't know where to start? Julia presents foundational design principles in easy to understand concepts to help guide your choices. While the examples feature traditional quilts, there's plenty here for the art quilter as well. Good design is good design no matter where it's applied!

“Visualizing Quilts”
Lecture by Ann Shaw

This lecture presents an overview of Ann's approach to designing quilts and the how differing choices can influence the look of a quilt. She discusses the use of “Gesture” as a guide to creating pieceable quilt designs and describes how the characteristics of printed fabrics that contribute to the overall look of a quilt. A series of examples illustrate her design process, from creating a pattern to unusual fabric choices

She is happy to answer questions from the audience during her presentation. She also shows some of her quilts at the end of the presentation.

October Outreach News

Made with much love by Goldie Radziewicz and sister for Cathy Carter! Materials from Outreach, quilted by Peggy Patterson.

Just a reminder to all members, Outreach still has a few "What Cancer Cannot Do" panels in white and off white. You are more than welcome to the panels and directions. We don't have much fabric, but if you have the fabric and don't have the time, we'll find someone to make the top, quilt the quilt and return it to you. We hope that no one in your family or one of your friends ever need, but if they do, Outreach will do all that we can to help you.

It's that time of the year! Time to start thinking about quilts at Christmas for the children in Talbot Interfaith Shelter's program! 10 Children, new this year!!! Ruby, age 1 year. Brinel, 10 years (girl). Mia, 3 years. Jacob, 5 years. Alexa, 4 years. Kendra, 10 months. Autumn, 5 months. Jordan, 2 years. Cameron, 3 years. Baby Boy to be here end of October. Outreach received some really nice young children's quilts this month, so we do have a few. If you'd like to make one of these children a quilt for Christmas, let Chris know so she can take that child off the "need" list. And thank you, it's important that everyone has a good Christmas, especially the children.

WOW! One month into our new year and Outreach delivered 283 items! We still have 2 full totes of pillows for the Clark Breast Center and around 20 children's quilts to be delivered. Way to go Outreach ladies! Thank you.

Need: Ideas for February's Sew In. What would you like to do this year? We don't need Mammo or Vet pillows. We have a large stash of quilt tops needing quilting (most smaller than 46" x 60"). We still have kits to piece, to quilt, and handwork!

Stop by Chris' garage on Tuesday mornings and pick up something to do! You can always leave finished projects (as far as you want to do) in her garage. But it would be a good idea to let her know! She sometimes slips out if she doesn't think anyone is coming over! Or if you'd like, she'll bring anything that you would like to work on to the Guild meeting on October 13, this coming Wednesday, just let her know.
