APRIL 2023 Newsletter

President's Corner

Greetings,

Welcome spring! It seems like it's been a long time coming this year, so I'm even more grateful for the explosion of beautiful blooms.

It's also time for us to start thinking about next year's officers for Bayside Quilters. Kate Oursler has done a masterful job of identifying folks who are willing to take on leadership positions in August. We will discuss the slate at the April meeting and vote in May. Here's the current list of candidates:

President – Jackie Granger
Vice President – Becki Combs
Secretary – Open
Treasurer – Lisa Schober, Assistant – Kris Smith
Programs – Open
Outreach – Jan Bohn, Assistant – Pat Massimini
Education and Preservation – Jo Verne, Assistant – Lou Diefenderder

Thanks to each of you who have agreed to step up to guild responsibilities—we couldn't do it without you. We still need to fill the positions of Secretary and Program chair. The Program chair can be a tough job without a lot of help, so we have lined up folks to handle identification of speakers, contracts, classes, and travel coordination. The Program chair will only have to coordinate with the team that is handling the details to make sure all bases are covered. Please consider if this is time for you to play a new role in the guild. You can talk to me or Kate Oursler for more details.

Enjoy this beautiful weather!

Pat

Table talk

Last months Free Table was really outstanding. A yard of Tula Pink was unearthed! Our April table may turn out to be just as good as Tricia Haberman has four bins of antique feed sack mixed with reproduction fabric. It was donated to her by the family of the quilter and she wants it on the free table rather than sell any of it. She has promised to bring them for the April free table.

Carol Clarke had some great jelly rolls, layer cakes and charm packs on the 10% Bayside side table. All were half price and included some Kaffe and others. She may be back with more in the future!

Jackie Grainger will be selling items from her stash with 10% going to Bayside. Look for her table as there will surely be GREAT things for sale.

Sustainable quilting: finding new homes for fabric taking up space in your stash!

Minutes of the Regular Meeting of Bayside Quilters

March 8, 2023

The meeting, at Trappe Volunteer Fire Department Fire Hall, was called to order by Pat Massimini, President at 9:35 a.m.. A quorum was present. Pat announced that the internet was not working so there were no Zoom participants.

New Member, Beth Jernigan, was introduced and visitors were welcomed.

We have several door prizes this month and our Membership Directory has been printed and is available.

Pat had several announcements regarding Outreach and thanked those who participated in the sew-in last month. Some quilts are available for binding. The new 'bee' led by Judy Gross for patriotic quilts for hospice veterans will be part of Outreach.

Kris Smith, co-treasurer, reported on the financial state of the guild. Kris has tax exemption forms if any are needed when making purchases for the guild.

Candy Stiffler announced that the May program fell through. If anyone can make a presentation or has an idea for the program, please let her know.

Nita Brayton has a sewing cabinet for sale.

Jan Bohn thanked all for their participation in our Outreach Sew-In. It has been suggested that the monthly Outreach sew-ins resume. If interested or have ideas about meeting place, please let Jan know. Judy Gross announced the sewing projects for the Patriotic Bee which include quilts for veterans and gurney quilts. See Judy for measurements.

Kate Oursler is the one person nominating committee. Several people have volunteered for jobs but there are still many opportunities especially Program Chairman. Kate will be making calls to all members.

Alice Kish has a table set up with goods for sale with 100% of profit to Bayside Guild. She also is helping with a 10% table where members may sell their fabrics or notions with 10% going to Bayside.

Show and Tell was presented. Besides the usual array of beautiful quilts, Pat Massimini shared her idea for a pattern book for Outreach Quilts. Rather than storing fabric and making kits, anyone interested in making a quilt for Outreach can get one of the patterns and use their stash to make it. However, some kits are still available.

Pat introduced this month's speaker, Barbara Cline. Barbara presented a wonderful, entertaining program and will teach a class tomorrow. After her presentation and trunk show, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Clarke, Secretary

Trappe Fire Company Sewing Camp Fundraisers

April 21-23

May 12-14

All Camp times: 8am-8pm Friday & Saturday; 8am-4pm on Sunday

Donation price: 1 day $25, 2 days $40, 3 days $50, 4-5-6 days no additional cost (I'll put out the donation jar if you're so inclined.)

You can come to either camp either day or you can come all 6 days just let me know so I can have enough tables & cords available. If you already paid just let me know your day/s preference! I'm sewing all six days and I'm excited to work on more UFO's. I got several done this weekend.

Reminder: no perfume, smelly hairspray, or hand lotions as several of our quilters have severe allergies. Feel free to bring lunch/dinner or patronize Coffee Trappe or Momma Maria's (food is excellent.).

Thanks, Lou Diefenderfer

Lecture

April 12, 2023, 9:30am - Trappe Fire Hall

Joyce Hughes

"Journey Into Quilting and Dimensional Thread Painting"

Joyce is an Award-Winning self-taught quilter, fiber artist and author. Joyce has put out two books. "Thread Paint A Garden Quilt" focuses on raw edge applique and thread painting to add shading, highlighting and definition. "Creating Art Quilts with Panels" works with Fabric Panels to create dimension and texture with threads and embellishments.

Joyce loves to teach and share her tips. One of her greatest accomplishments is when a student creates their own Artwork following Joyce's technique of Dimensional Thread Painting!

Workshop - $40 (includes fabric kit)

April 12, 1pm-4pm, Trappe Fire Hall

"Thread Painting" Poppies with Bluebird

Learn the basics of Raw Edge Applique, Dimensional Thread Painting and Embellishment on this beautiful Poppies with Bluebird wall hanging. Learn Dimensional Thread Painting - using zig zag and straight stitching. See the fabric come to life as you sew and layer the threads on top of your design; adding shading, highlighting, texture and definition. You will use Thread as Paint –and sew with different types of threads and color combinations.

Lecture

May 10, 2023, 9:30am - Trappe Fire Hall

Pat Massimini

"Design Your Quilt: Tips to Take It to the Next Level"

Have you ever wanted to tweak a quilt design to give it something a little extra special? Instead of piecing complicated blocks, you can get a great effect with simple blocks, creative placement and fearless coloring. Pat will show you some approaches for transforming a ho-hum quilt to wow.

Quilt software is not necessary to apply this technique, but it goes faster with computer tools. Pat will demonstrate some useful tools in quilt design software and show how it speeds up this experimental process.

Here are some images from the program. You can use any of them that you think would be most effective.

Lecture

June 14, 2023, 9:30am - Trappe Fire Hall

T Carter

Historian, Fiber Artist & Storyteller

T's quilts reveal history from many perspectives, including those of women, ordinary people, people of color and others whose voices have yet to be heard and whose stories remain untold.

T will present her Indigenous Lecture. This collection includes a colorful variety of quilts inspired by Native American and Indigenous history, culture, and lifeways. Through star quilts, wildlife applique and beadwork, T shares stories passed down by the oral tradition and exposes hidden history.
