AUGUST 2021 Newsletter

President's Corner

Greetings Quilters,

Wow! August already, and it feels like September, but I'll take it. Better than those hot and sticky days, which will return.

I hope you are all looking forward to attending our August meeting. Thanks to Nita and some left over program budget, we will have refreshments, so even if you don't plan to come and spend money—which we hope you will—come and visit with your quilting friends.

I helped the committee organize the "stuff" for our auction and sale—and we do have STUFF!!! It's truly amazing what you all have donated, so I hope you will come with cash or check in hand to purchase some of it. This will be our only real fundraiser this year, and it will really help the guild if we are successful. There are pictures of three baskets on page 7 just to give you a tease of what's coming. There are lots of fabrics, kits, notions, patterns and books, and there are also great quilts both for sale and for auction.

We will also be voting on our officers and Board for the 2021-2022 year at this meeting.

Just to keep you up to date, almost half our members have already paid their 2021-2022 dues, so we are well on our way back to robust membership numbers with two months left till the due date in September. Sharon Perry will be at the membership table in both August and September or you can mail your dues in if you want. The coupon is on page 6.

If there is enough interest, there will be a winter retreat in Ocean City, so be sure to let Jan Bohn know. See the details on page 4.

We also have ads for two longarms and several Berninas that belonged to Nancy Willis, formerly a Lilies employee. The ads are on page 12 and flyers are attached to the email.

I hope to see lots of you at the August meeting, and while it is cool, think about making cozy quilts.

Sharon

Editor's Comments

Bayside is beginning, slowly, to return to some nearly normal activities. We have a great auction/sale planned in August at the Trappe Fire House.

Please send pictures of your work or you bee's activities for our virtual "Show & Tell" pages. If you send pictures to Kay Butler, she can post them to our Facebook page.

Come join us. It will be great to see old friends.

BAYSIDE MEETING MINUTES

July 14, 2021

Lou Diefenderfer welcomed us to the Trappe Firehouse and informed us that we are being accommodated by being charged $150.00 instead of $350.00 to meet there. She said there was a donation bucket on the counter in case any of us would be inclined to contribute to the Firehouse.

President Sharon Miller called the meeting to order at 9:30am. She reminded us that parking was prohibited on the side of the Firehouse and across from the Firehouse except for Handicap. There is a lot in the back and on the side, please use those.

The Easton Firehouse does not want us back. We shall look into that as we are an Easton 501C-3 and the Firehouse is supposed to be open to Easton non-profits at no charge.

This year we are collecting dues. Sharon Perry is our Membership Chair. Dues are due by September 1, 2021. The coupon is in the Newsletter.

There is a fund-raising sew-in at the Trappe Firehouse July 23-24.

The free table WILL BE BACK IN SEPTEMBER!!!!!!

Our August meeting will have a sale and Auction.

Meetings will be at the Trappe Firehouse for the foreseeable future.

July 27th will be a Zoom EQ lesson from Pat Massimini.

Anita Brayton said Programs has money left over so she will provide refreshments for the August meeting and would like volunteers to help with pastries, fruit, yogurt and beverages, please contact Anita to help – bayquiltz@yahoo.com.

The June minutes have two corrections: the EQ class date is incorrect; it should be July 27th. The Treasurer pointed out that the Board should start thinking about the budget in July then the budget should be approved by the Board in August, not that the Board should do the budget.

Lisa Schober gave the Treasurer's report. Don't forget to submit your dues by the September meeting.

Debbie Brobst ran down the fall programs.

Jackie Grainger talked about the upcoming Sale and Auction at the August meeting. The deadline for donations is July 20th. Remember that the sale/auction is cash or check – no credit cards!!

Candy Stiffler gave us her last Quilt Vine advertisement, sob sob. The last day is July 15th, 10-2.

Chris Dorset – Outreach – read us thank you notes from Hospice, Early Head Start, the Breast Center and Critchlow Adkins Center.

Jan Bohn touted the Ocean City Retreat – February 20 – 24th. 4 days of non stop sewing and fun! See the flyer elsewhere in the newsletter.

A big thank-you to Julia Cohoon who spearheaded mask making during Covid.

Our speaker was Jean Konopacz, a somewhat new member of Bayside, who has a long arming business. Her talk was 'Why do I quilt what I quilt on your quilt?' Say that three times fast!! She gave us lots to ruminant on.

Her quote of the day 'Nothing is a mistake – it's a design detail' Contact her at jkonopacz@gmail.com

Show and tell gave us lots to inspire us.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:48am.

Respectfully Submitted, Jan Bohn, Secretary

SOMETHING OLD/SOMETHING NEW: an exploration of what I did on my Covid vacation. Finishing up long avoided projects, starting new intriguing work, and trying to find the meaning of life through quilting. From blocks stored in ziplock bags since the early 90's to attempts to be as modern as possible I found myself enmeshing myself in my sewing room for hours everyday. Nowhere to go, no one to see...It will be fun to review the year with the guild!

AUGUST OUTREACH NEWS

Quilters! Jump into your stash and scraps! Outreach needs Mammo Pillows! Any size, any shape, any fabric that's soft and machine washable. We missed Sew In in February, Clark Comprehensive Breast Center at UM Shore Regional Health is in need of Mammo pillows. They can be small, medium, large (no larger than 16" x 11) or heart shaped (Template for heart-shaped pillow is attached to the email). If you'd like the small cotton labels that Outreach uses, Chris will have a supply at Guild meeting. Or, if you'd like to just label the pillow with a permanent marker, that's fine. Bayside Quilters, Easton, MD You may add your first name if you'd like. Thank you! Chris chdorset@atlanticbb.net

Another Beautiful Reject!

A Bayside member handed me a bag of blocks and said she didn't know what she was doing! She said she didn't like the colors! I believe she had taken a class and knew once she'd made the blocks, she'd never put it together! Beautiful construction on the blocks.

Outreach doesn't turn down blocks that are ready to be made into a top. Since I knew they were from a Pet Free Home, I called on another Bayside Member whom I knew was pet free as well and liked to put tops together. She did a magnificent job piecing the top. Onto another Bayside member who just happens to have a long arm and likes to "play" with quilting patterns. Awesome quilting (shame on Chris for not taking a picture). Then this beauty went to have the binding applied. And finally, binding and label done by yet another member by hand. In all, that's five Bayside Quilt Guild members (not including Chris) who touched this beautiful quilt.

Outreach, over the years, has given a quilt to Talbot Early Head Start's staff each summer for their Staff Appreciation Day. During the year, if we receive a quilt that is larger than we normally give to Pain Palliative Care or Talbot Hospice, we donate it to the TEHS. This year, we were fortunate to have three. This is the one that the Director selected. Her comment was, I wish I could win this one, my daughter would love it! Thank you to Bayside for making this happen again. The other two are being "saved" for Talbot Interfaith Shelter at Christmas.

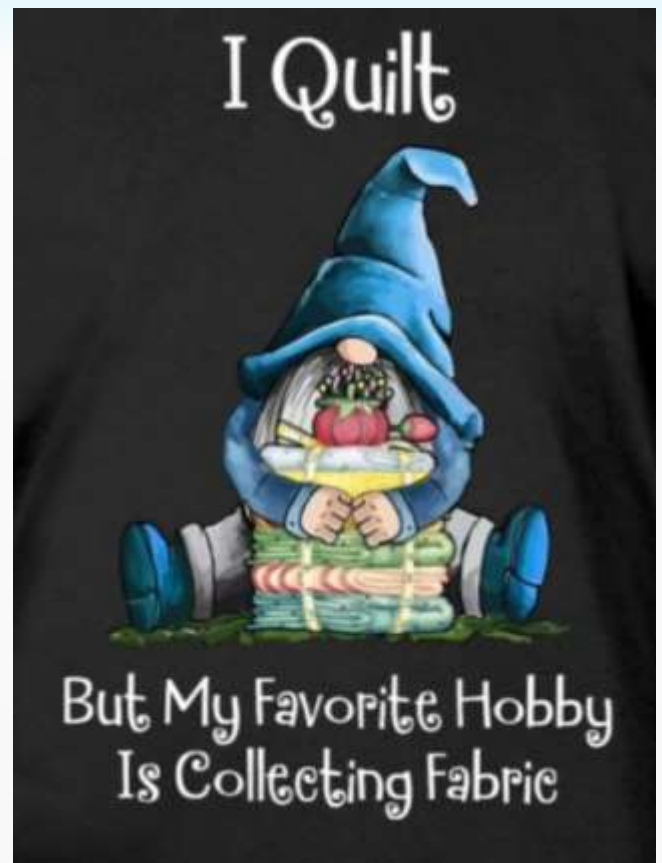

Outreach will not be having a "formal" meeting as we had in the past, but if you'll let me know what you want to do/make, I can bring it to the guild meeting or you can stop by my house. Kits to cut or quilt are assembled and ready to go! Thank you to all who have contributed a little something to Outreach this year, be it a "binding job", extra blocks, fabric, time, quilting... the list goes on. See you at the auction/yard sale. Chris, Outreach, chdorset@atlanticbb.net
