August 2024 Newsletter

President's Corner

Happy Anniversary Bayside!

Each year the month of August earmarks the anniversary of Bayside, with this year being the celebration of 32 years being a guild! I admit that as a fairly new member (6 years), I don't know enough about the history of Bayside, but I do know that it was started, and continues to thrive, because of the love of quilting.

Members have come and gone over the past 30+ years, but what remains is all of us - a talented group of quilters dedicated to the continuation of this amazing art. We are so fortunate to be able to continue what just a handful of quilters started so many years ago.

This month also denotes the end of our fiscal year. And while we did not accomplish everything we set out to do (we never tackled the revision of the operating guidelines, for example), we have done so many incredible things. The most obvious of course was our November 2023 Handmade Sale which made a record-breaking amount of money. But just as important was our amazing roster of programs that included demos by members, a pop-up quilt shop, a modern challenge reveal, an upcycle/recycle challenge, in-person speakers and workshops, Zoom speakers a Zoom workshop, and our annual Outreach sew-in. Incredibly these programs were all run under budget, enabling the guild to be in the black for the first time in many years. I would like to personally thank Becki Combs and her team for planning and executing our wonderful 2023/24 programs. And hopefully another thing that we accomplished this past year is the fostering of community and camaraderie with each other. At the end of the day, I believe that is really what being a guild is all about.

Table Talk

This month is our fun luncheon so we won't have a free table. HOWEVER, we will have a sale table. I have received lovely things from Elaine Masso, Jackie Granger, Gloria Edmiston and others. I have sorted the pieces and they will be true bargains for you to buy and 100% profit to Bayside. Gloria donated some Tula Pink, Amy Butler and others. Elaine's donation includes Art Gallery fabrics. It will be fun to check out the sale as you socialize at the luncheon.

See you there!

Bayside Quilters Meeting Minutes

July 10, 2024

The meeting was called to order at 9:30 am by President, Jackie Granger.

There were no new members or guests.

Two corrections to the June minutes were proposed & approved:

- The August luncheon is on 8/14/2024 from 11:30am to 2:30pm
- The June program name was "All About Art Quilts"

There was no new business.

Jackie revealed that the result of the May & June surveys is to hire a major quilter to come to Bayside for a presentation & workshop. Members are encouraged to let our new program chairs Sharon Miller or Marianne Hamilton know which quilters we are interested in having.

Membership renewal will happen at the August luncheon & the September meeting. Members need to legibly fill out a membership form with their $50 payment. Renewals will not be accepted without a completed form. Katie Wyatt will be taking pictures of all renewing members at the August luncheon and the September meeting. These will be used for the new directory.

There will be a Bayside board meeting on Monday, August 5th at 4pm in the Cooke's Hope community room. All members are welcome. Please let Jackie Granger know if you are planning to attend.

There is a Bayside Sale Table in the back room today. Alice has items donated by Esther Montgomery for sale with 100% going to Bayside. There is also a free table and Lou is again selling 50/50 tickets.

There is a GQC Roundtable July 16 – Jackie will ask if there are any suggestions for a major speaker.

Treasurer's Report- Lisa Schober gave a report and said the guild is in the black. She needs budget numbers from all committees by July 15 for the proposed 2024-25 budget.

Committee Reports:

- Outreach: Jan Bohn announced that the next Outreach meeting is 7/24 at 10:00 am at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Easton.

- Programs: Becki Combs talked about today's half-day class; Selvages and Embellishments by Cheryl Sees. The cost is $40. Becki also discussed our September speaker, Kestrel Michaud, explaining that Kestrel will be presenting "Kestrel's Creations," a trunk show of her work. Lastly, Becki said that our October speaker is Kay Butler who will show us and discuss a number of her Antique Quilts.

- Handmade Sale- The dates of the sale are November 15 & 16. A workday for October 16 is being planned. Pat Massimini will have more information at the next guild meeting.

Announcements:

Colleen Weil announced a bus trip to ASQ Quilt Show on September 13 at a cost of $83. Members can call Colleen at 410-251-9758 if interested.

Program Introduction: Becki Combs let Cheryl Sees introduce herself. Her lecture called "Anatomy of a Quilt" was very informative, with many amazing and beautiful quilts illustrating her work.

Show & Tell was as always a great way to see what we are all working on.

Name Tag Giveaway:

Thank you again to Katie Wyatt who donated the prizes for our giveaway. This time we had two bundles of three fat quarters from a collection called "Linen Closet" from Henry Glass Fabrics. Trisha Haber & Becki Combs were the winners.

The 50/50 prize was $48 won by Sharon Miller.

Jackie adjourned the meeting at 11:20am.

Minutes of the Bayside Board Meeting held on August 5, 2024

President Jackie Granger opened the meeting at 4:05 pm . Present were Jackie Granger, Becki Combs, Lisa Schober, Kris Smith, Dael Cowdrey, Sharon Miller, Marianne Hamilton, Pat Massimini, Debbie Brobst, Jo Verne, Alice Kish, Kin West, Kate Oursler, Nita Brayton, & Lou Diefenderfer. Lou volunteered to take minutes since Secretary Karli Abbott could not attend.

August Luncheon: Jo Verne & Alice Kish advised that approximately 40-50 people have RSVP'd to attend the luncheon so far and that they are still taking additional RSVP's. Bayside will provide chicken salad, lettuce, tomatoes, and rolls. Members are to bring side dishes and desserts. Alice will have an "upscale" sale table with 100% of proceeds going to the guild. There will not be a free table. The theme of the luncheon is "Midshore Summer" with farm-chicken-sunflower related decor. There will be a short business meeting, induction of new officers, show & tell and fun!

Membership: Kate Oursler introduced a new membership form that will go into the next newsletter and will be available for renewal and new members at the August luncheon & September guild meetings.

New Members: Nita Brayton & Chris Dorset want to form a committee to get together with new members to explain what the guild does and how new members can get involved. Nita mentioned having a new member luncheon. The board members discussed this and felt at this time that would not be necessary. Karli Abbott has already surveyed the guild about what we think new members would like to have available to them in terms of information about Bayside. Karli will email Nita & Chris to share the information that she collected and volunteer to be on the committee. The information card that is in the welcome bags has to be updated with the new information. Lisa suggested that we put a small amount of money into the Membership budget to cover the cost of the welcome bag materials and it was agreed.

Handmade Market: Pat Massimini advised she will have kits available for members to take at the August Luncheon & September and October meetings so members can make items for the sale at home. Kits will also be available at Maker's Day which is scheduled for October 16th at the Trappe Fire House. That day will be a donation from Lou to the guild. Kin West passed around rack cards and flyers that she has designed and will have printed for the sale. She also mentioned that she, Nita, and Lou are working on getting sponsors to offset some of the advertising costs (printing flyers & rack cards and two ads in Attraction Magazine). If a sponsor donates $25-$90, they will be listed on a board located on the 1 st floor at the firehouse during the sale. If a sponsor pays $100 by August 30th they will be listed on the back of the rack card, on the flyer, and on the sponsor board. Nita is working with WHCP to have a short interview online about the sale. Lou volunteered to be interviewed by Steve Moody at WINX FM 94.3 about the guild/sale.

Holiday Luncheon: Jackie mentioned we need a chairperson for the holiday luncheon. Jo is looking into venues that are within our price range. It was mentioned that the firehouse only costs the guild $200 but that means we have to set up and clean up even if we get a caterer. Lisa gave Jo the information to contact Joy at Prospect Bay in Grasonville. St. Michaels Yacht Club was also mentioned, but they are not open on Wednesdays.

Quilt Show: Kin West has volunteered to chair a quilt show in the spring. Lou will ask the Board of Trustees at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Easton if it would be possible to use the Church for a one day quilt show. The board believes that it is important for us to share the art of quilting with the community, and we have not done so since our last quilt show in 2019. If we can use Immanuel Luthern or another church, we would hang the quilts over the pews and have several racks for displaying the quilts (no ladders or scaffolding!)

Facebook: It was mentioned we are still seeing inappropriate information on the Bayside Facebook site. Becki Combs volunteered to monitor it daily and remove anything irrelevant to Bayside. Debbie Brobst will continue to add information for the guild. Kay Butler is the member in charge of the Bayside Facebook page with Debbie and Becki as monitors.

Publicity: Nita is resigning from the publicity chair position and a new chairperson will be needed. She will continue with advertising for the Handmade Market with WHCP, Attraction Magazine, and Talbot Spy. Kin will be handling the rack cards and flyers. Nita will forward anything for the Handmade Market that needs to be on Facebook to Debbie.

Job descriptions: At the start of this fiscal year, Jackie handed out job description drafts to each of the board members and advisory chairpersons with a request to work on creating complete job descriptions during the year. Pat volunteered to set up a google drive for all board & advisory members to update and review these job descriptions so that they can be completed.

Budget: The board discussed the old and new budget, going line by line to ensure that we have the right numbers for the upcoming fiscal year. Alice Kish moved to accept the new budget and Jan Bohn seconded. All board members were in favor and the motion carried. The budget will be put on the website under the members only password protected section so that all Bayside members can access it.

Adjourn: Lisa moved to adjourn the meeting and Lou seconded. All were in favor of the meeting being adjourned at 6:01pm.

Trappe Fire Company Sewing Camp Fundraisers August 16-18 September 20-22

All Camp times: 8am-8pm Friday & Saturday; 8am-4pm on Sunday
Donation price: 1 day $25, 2 days $40, 3 days $50

For your donation you get: an 8 foot table, a chair and an extension cord.

Feel free to bring a small portable iron & ironing pad; we will set up several irons around the room. We have a few rulers & mats to use in the closet. If you want to set up extra tables, the rule is you take them down & please put your chair back on the rack–this just helps Sonny & me at clean up time.

Reminder: no perfume, smelly hairspray, or hand lotions as several of our quilters have severe allergies.

Feel free to bring snacks/lunch/dinner or patronize Coffee Trappe or Momma Maria's (food is excellent.).

It is a quilty pleasure of mine to write about Bayside Quilters history. I hope you enjoy reading about it.

We are now into November, 1993 when dues were $10.00 a year! At the monthly meeting Hospice tree ornaments were collected. A Christmas luncheon was scheduled for December 15. A Name Tag Contest was announced. No rules but judging was to be based on creativity, legibility and workmanship. The regular prize for simply wearing a name tag was begun-oh boy!

Flood (mid-West) relief packages were acknowledged, baby quilt was turned in, and a request for the Challenge quilts to be brought to November meeting. (I can't find anything that tells me what the challenge theme was.) Members were asked to bring "Old Time" quilts for the November Show & Tell meeting. Old time was defined as quilts that were 25 years or more old. (I like themed Show & Tells, how 'bout you?)

Eight challenge quilts were judged. Ann Kaiser won in a viewers choice in a tie breaker with Vicki Olds.

A list of classes for 1994 began with Norma Campbell teaching Amish baskets and Machine quilting in 4 sessions in January. Baltimore album classes followed in March for 5 sessions. All were held weekly for 2 hours at the YMCA.

There are 2 newsletters dated November, 1993. The second one commented on the success of the "Old Time" Show & Tell. Seventeen oldies were greeted with many oohs and ahhs. A thank you to all the members that turned in Hospice tree ornaments. Everyone was invited to the Christmas luncheon. Reading between the lines, I think the annual Outreach Sew-In was born. There were 30 members-they did a lot to establish what we enjoy today. (There's only a couple of those names that are still with us.)

I don't know if this is true or not but an article from the Washington Post by Jack Anderson's 9/30/93 column was reprinted in this issue.

"Of all the secrets kept under wraps at the CIA this one may make John LeCarre's head turn. The CIA has an in-house quilt-making club. Known as the "Undercover Quilters" around the corridors of the CIA, these officials weave after work. The CIA couldn't tell us how many members belong to the quilt club because they have to be tight-lipped about anything that could indicate the total number of their personnel.

The cloak-and-quilters displayed some tools of the trade recently at the CIA's 14th Annual "Family Day" at the agency headquarters. It's a sort of show-and-tell for the children of agency officials, featuring exhibits of CIA clubs (from quilt-making to karate) and showcasing state-of-the-art espionage equipment. The children were particularly intrigued by a bug in a wall (apparently placed for show only) that picked up conversation in the hallway outside one room. Also popular were hand-held calculators with listening devices." I wonder if it still exists. Undercover Quilters, gave me a chuckle.

Nita B, Historian

Quilting's a long and winding road, what a journey!

What a journey most of us have had since we began quilting! For me, it began as a way to give a unique Christmas gift to my family members that didn't cost a fortune. I had been into "crafting" and making Christmas Ornaments. I had 6 horses, a full time job and that was enough to keep me busy. Didn't sew. Had no desire to sew. Didn't even hem my own slacks! But then I did have my mother's old Singer (301A). Wish I still did, but that's further down the road on my journey. I stopped in a craft shop just outside of Hillsboro, Maryland. The nice lady there showed me some panels that I could make as long as I wanted and just sew around the blocks. And there was a quilt! You could also make those into "quillows". It was my first attempt at quilting. A quilt is a top, a back with batting in between. Sewn together to keep the stuff inside. I believe I made them envelop style, turned them right side out, polyester batting stayed in between. Stitch around the blocks, sew the opening closed and you have just made a quilt! What a wonderful beginning to the journey I have been on for many, many years.

What about you? What was the first thing you made that resembled a quilt? Did you take a class? Or did someone take you under their wing and help you along? I had a wonderful quilter that took me under her wing, Phyllis. I remember the first couple of quilts that she helped me make. In fact I showed pieces from one at our April meeting, Earth Day Challenge: Recycle /Upcycle. And I won a prize: Fabric Fixer-Upper!

Would you like to share your journey or a part of your journey with other Bayside Quilters members? I know we all would like to know more about our fellow quilters. What got you started? My Mother sewed, I learned basics in Home Economics (way back when they taught it). But my quilting journey started when I was in my early 50's.

Would you consider writing a little something about why you started quilting? Or maybe there's a stop along your journey you would like to tell us about? Discovering Modern Quilting? Or maybe the time you just had to buy every piece of fabric in that one line that just came out? It would be a wonderful, interesting addition to our newsletter. Half a page? Whole page? And if you're not real computer literate and need help, Nita B. or I would be glad to help you. And if you just don't think you can organize your thoughts to be "published" in the newsletter, give either of us a call and tell us your story and we will write it, your way, in your words.

How about it ladies?! Give Nita B. a call, email. 410-725-432 nitabnitab@yahoo.com Or me, 410-364-5750 chdorset@atlanticbb.net

Our sale to the public

October 16
Maker's Day
When we work together to make items for the sale

Do you have any good ideas that you would like to share? How about a cute pillowcase or a reading pillow? Patterns for both of these items are available on the Members Only page of our website under Bayside Patterns (baysidequilters.com/bayside-patterns.html). If you have other ideas that you would like to see as a pattern, please contact Pat Massimini (pat@massimini.us).

Think about how you would like to help make this year's market a success. We'll be asking for volunteers at the September meeting for setup, sales, cashiers, and other support.

PUBLICITY NEEDS YOU

The Handmade Market is just around the corner, at least from a publicity point of view. Lou Diefenderfer, Kin West & I are the members that are developing an advertising campaign this year. All of us need to work to make this another successful fund raiser for Bayside Quilters. Our main advertising dollars are going to ads in the Attraction Magazine. Another way for us to get the public interested, as well as pay for flyer & rack card printing, is to have sponsors. We will be contacting various businesses for sponsorship at a $25, $50, $75 and $100 levels.

Kin, our design guru, has made space for sponsors on the flyer and rack cards. We will also have a "Sponsor Board" that will be displayed in the entrance. We can add supporter names at any time to the Sponsor Board. However, the $75-$100 sponsors are needed by August 30, 2024.

The placement of sponsor names depends on the amount:

$25 for a business card size name on the Sponsor Board.

$50 for a larger business card on the Sponsor Board.

$75-$100 contributors will have their names on the front of the flyer and the back of the rack cards.

BONUS-You or your family can be a sponsor, anonymously, if you prefer.

If you want to contact a business, please check with one of us before you do to prevent a business being contacted by more than one person.

We are a non-profit and will provide all sponsors with a receipt.

Questions? Please contact me at 410-725-4323 or my email nitabnitab@yahoo.com; Lou Diefenderfer, 410-924-1764, sistembelle@aol.com & Kin West, 410-812-3101, kinwest5550@gmail.com

Kestrel's Creations (a trunk show)

If you have never seen Kestrel's art quilts, you are in for a real treat. She labels herself as a classically-trained, imaginative realism fine artist with a passion for illustrating in fabric.

Her art quilts are made with intricate fabric piecing which assembles into a quilt that looks like a beautiful painting. Her work has won more than 50 local, regional, national and international awards.

Here are a few of her more recent creations.

Presenting
Antique Quilts Trunk Show

Kay began her quilting journey 30 years ago when she first made an Amish crib quilt for her newborn daughter. The quilting stitches of that little Amish quilt were real toe catchers, but that first project fueled a lifelong passion of quilt adventures and quilting projects. Kay is a past president of the Heartland Quilt Guild of the Eastern Shore and the Helping Hands Quilt Guild of Dover. She is presently a member of five quilt guilds! She is an avid antique quilt collector, quilt historian and conservator and is a member of the American Quilt Study Group. She has taught in the Caroline County School for 31 years and is now embracing her retirement years teaching the next generation about quilting. Kay enjoys making patterns from antique quilts and reproduces those patterns with modern fabrics.

August Outreach News

It may seem like a long time to the Christmas holidays, but it's already time for Outreach to get started on stockings for kids. We typically distribute several hundred stockings in early December. We will be distributing kits for our members to make the stockings at the September Bayside meeting, which means that the Outreach team needs to create the kits in August. If you have Christmas fabric that would be suitable for kids, please bring it to the August Bayside meeting. We can cut a stocking from a piece as small as 8" x 9". so let us turn your scraps into a welcome gift for a child.

If you would like to join the Outreach team when we make the kits, join us on August 28 at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Easton.

OUTREACH AND VETERANS' BEE

We had so many quilts given to Outreach last meeting!! Thank you, thank you!

Our next meeting will be August 28th, 10:15 at Immanuel Lutheran Church, 7215 Ocean Parkway (Route 50 East), Easton. Hope you will join us. We've quilt kits, mammo pillow kits, handwork, fellowship, dare I say gossip??, lots of laughs. Bring your machine if you like, your lunch or you can pop out and buy something. Or just come and kibbutz.

Outreach is lucky to have so many dedicated participants – those who receive our quilts, veteran's quilts, pillows and banners, mammo pillows are SO APPRECIATIVE! Thanks again.

Ever Wonder?

Quilters are more than stitchers of fabric. Many of us are bird watchers. But have you ever wondered which bird was singing in your backyard?

Try the phone app Merlin. It will record and identify what it "hears". Why not become a citizen scientist and give it a try.

Pennsylvania National Quilt Extravaganza

Greater Philadelphia Expo Center

September 12-15, 2024

Mancuso Show Management celebrates the 31st annual Pennsylvania National Quilt Extravaganza (PNQE), September 12-15, 2024, at the Greater Philadelphia Expo Center in Oaks, PA.

PNQE will be dishing up all the ingredients needed for a successful quilt show including unique and beautiful displays of quilts and works of textile and wearable art. Plus, as past patrons know, the Pennsylvania National Quilt Extravaganza features an amazing Merchants Mall filled with vendor booths, offering everything quilters and needle crafters need to quench their creative thirsts. This popular event is the largest and most comprehensive quilt festival in a state known for its rich history of quilting.
