of the Eastern Shore, Inc.

JULY 2022 Newsletter

President's Corner

Greetings Bayside Quilters,

It's hard to believe it's July already. Which also means it is getting close to our 30th Anniversary celebration and challenge. I can't wait to see what you all do with the challenge. There are such great prizes, so if you haven't started yet, get busy! See pages 4 & 5 for details. And, don't forget, you need to sign up for the luncheon by July 13.

I took a road trip to Ohio to visit a childhood friend, and on the way I decided to stop in Athens, OH at the Dairy Barn. They had a wonderful SAQA Exhibition, Layered and Stitched: 50 Years of Innovative Art. This exhibit of 50 quilts follows the evolution of the art quilt from its beginnings in the 1960s through today's artists with their innovative new materials and digital techniques. It was well worth the stop.

Also, start planning for our November Handmade Items Fundraiser. You can consign to us (you get 70%, we keep 30%) or you can donate items to us to be sold. This will be an "open to the public" event so, hopefully, we will do well. Keep Thanksgiving and Christmas items in mind if you plan to make items for this sale. We will need hands-on help for the event so, please, consider volunteering to help us raise money for the guild.

Another place we need volunteer help is with programs. We are going to try to get back to having more in-person programs and workshops and coordinating them is a big job. Candy has laid out the many tasks required to make these happen again (see page 9). Some can be a one time task for a particular class and some can be continuing across all classes. Talk to Candy if you would like to help.

Finally, check out the very impressive Outreach statistics on page 11. You have been so supportive of Outreach over the last years. I hope we are able to carry on this giving history as we move forward.

Thank you and keep quilting!

Sharon

Minutes of the Regular Meeting of Bayside Quilt Guild June 8, 2022

A quorum being present, President Sharon Miller called the meeting of the Bayside Quilt Guild to order. The meeting was held at the Trappe Volunteer Fire Department.

Sharon announced that the installation of new officers will take place at the July meeting though the new officers will not assume responsibilities until after the August meeting.

There was no regular meeting in May and therefore no minutes to approve. Lisa Schober gave the treasurer's report. We now have 112 members and are holding our own financially.

Announcements: Anita Brayton reminded members of the challenge to commemorate the guild's 30th Anniversary this year. It will be held in conjunction with our August luncheon. There will be prizes determined by Viewer's Choice. Entries must be quilts; no bags, clothes, table runners, etc. Each must have something to do with 30 and be accompanied by the "story" of how it relates. Members wishing to help with the luncheon and showing of quilts should sign up with Sharon.

Jackie Granger informed the group of the plans so far for the November Fundraiser which will be at the same time as Waterfowl Festival. The dates for the Fundraiser are November 11 & 12. The sale will be at the Trappe Firehouse. Trappe Volunteer Fire Department has donated the meeting space. Items sold must be handmade. Seventy percent of the sale will go to the maker, 30% to the Guild. All items must be priced by the maker. A question was raised regarding acceptance of credit cards. Jackie will investigate that possibility. Donations will be accepted. It has not been determined yet if we will have a raffle quilt. Jackie also discussed the luncheon plans which will be held at Miles River Yacht Club. Sharon Perry is accepting reservations and checks. The cost is $30.

Candy Stiffler announced that she has volunteered to assume program chair because Debbie Brobst is unable to continue at this time due to family matters. Candy would like suggestions for programs.

Sharon Miller announced that Bayside's gmail is not for urgent matters and to please send copy directly to her personal email or to Pat Massimini's email if it needs immediate attention.

Pat Massimini would like for someone to volunteer to learn the AV system for running Zoom meetings when she assumes the president's responsibilities.

Pat then introduced our speaker for this month who came to us by Zoom. Nicole Moore from Sew Much Moore presented "Better Bags", showing many patterns that she has used to make bags that she sells.

After a brief intermission, several members shared their quilts in Show and Tell.

Meeting was adjourned at 11:18.

Save the Date Bayside Handmade Item Fundraiser November 11th & 12th

Anything handmade can be sold. This will be a sale to the public during Waterfowl Festival. You will receive 70% of the purchase price and Bayside will receive 30%.

For more details or to volunteer to help, contact Jackie Granger by email or phone: grangeriandolo@gmail.com or 908-507-3966

How to Enter A 30-Year Challenge Quilt Viewers Choice to Select One of the Fabulous Prizes

I'm really looking forward to the 30-Year Challenge quilts. In the past there has been such a fantastic variety it makes it difficult to choose a favorite.

To enter a quilt, please place your entry in an opaque container, a paper bag or pillow case are good options. We don't want to taint the voting by letting people see your finished entry quite yet. Please put you name and the measurements of your entry on the outside of the container. An Artist Statement also needs to be submitted with the quilt. You can email me the statement (nitabnitab@yahoo.com) or write/print it out and include it with your quilt.

You MUST have label on the back of your quilt. This is the only way we will be able to identify ownership. The information can be as little as your name and phone number or more elaborate. Numbers will be assigned to entries for voting purposes.

You may turn your entry in at the June or July Bayside meetings or you may deliver it to one of the following at any time before the deadline:
(Please call first).

Thirty!!! Year Challenge

Can you believe it? Bayside Quilters has been active, even during a world wide pandemic, for thirty years and it's time for a quilt challenge to mark the anniversary.

SIZE: The challenge quilt size can be as small as 12" on one side to throw/lap (50" x 65"). The quilt won't be disqualified if your entry is smaller or larger. Quilts will be divided into size groups at the reveal finale. Size is NOT a factor in judging.

DESIGN: The pattern, design, style, color is the makers choice. You get to decide what to make but it must be a quilt; 3 layers of materials sewn together. It must be finished. No dolls, stuffed animals, quilted books, bags/purse-you get the idea.

DEADLINE: Delivered to Challenge Committee no later than Sunday, August 7, 2022. Quilts will be displayed and judged at that time. See page for details on submitting your entry.

JUDGING: Viewers Choice.

To inspire your creativity you may want to start with some 30 year anniversary symbols. Traditional gem is pearl, modern is diamond. Color is green, flower is lily or sweet pea.

Good Luck

P.S. I'll need some help later. If you have questions contact Nita Brayton, 410-725-4323 or nitabnitab@yahoo.com

BQES Has a History of Community Outreach

Star Democrat newspaper article from June, 1993. Apparently BQ met at the Easton Y before its expansion.

“An old fashioned quilting bee atmosphere has been revived by the recently organized Bayside Quilters (BQ). The congenial group, now numbering more than 40, meets the third Wednesday of every month from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Talbot YMCA in a bright, spacious room on the second floor. They have several interesting and worthwhile projects underway.

An outstandingly beautiful wall hanging, quilted in red, black and white, has been completed and will be presented to the YMCA “in gratitude for the use of this wonderful room.” It was designed by Jan McManus.

In addition, the BQ have begun work on a queen-size quilt using this same attractive design. This quilt will be the prize in a raffle, the proceeds earmarked for the YMCA’s expansion project.

. . . The quilt raffle and other funding projects are now in progress and the quilt will be awarded to the winner in the fall. BQ expressed gratitude to JoAnn Fabrics and Wal-Mart who have donated to the project.

Much of the quilters’ work is done by hand but two or three state-of-the-art sewing machines are in evidence in the meeting room. The club’s community service includes making children’s quilts, the ABC project, for chronically ill children and also to fill a need by the sheriffs departments rescue and service duties. Also, magazine subscriptions and books are donated to Talbot County Free Library.

When the group gets together, they pitch in to assist a fellow member with stretching and attaching the backing and soft interlining to the ornamental quilt top. One quilt a month is basted in this manner for an individual member.

Also, they are each creating a “block of the month.” December had a Christmas tree motif. Other block themes have included “Road to the White House” in January, “Primitive Pierced Heart” for February, and “Let’s Fly a Kite” for March.

Bayside Quilters correspond with a sister group in West Kempsey, New South Wales, Australia. They send information on projects and quilted items back and forth. At the April meeting, a jewelry pouch fashioned of lace and cotton with a kangaroo design was received and admired.

One member, Nancy Scholey who is a book expert, gave a talk on “twenty quilt books every quilt library should have.” In March, Sandy Bemis explained and demonstrated machine quilting, Thelma Wrightson sends out a quarterly newsletter.

President Lucia Humes stated, “We welcome new members with any degree of competency.” Bring a sandwich. Coffee, tea, and dessert are provided by volunteers.

The list of members includes those from many towns throughout Talbot County. In addition, members come from Greensboro and Goldsboro and two from Harrington, Delaware.”

The scrapbooks will be on display at the August Anniversary lunch.

The Y Expansion raffle quilt is queen size and machine appliquéd. I wonder where it is now.

July 13, 2022 at 9:30 AM Trappe Volunteer Fire Department via Zoom Lecture by Amy Friend

Amy Friend is a former museum curator turned designer. She designs modern quilts and specializes in paper pieced designs. She authored the books Intentional Piecing (2016) and Improv Paper Piecing: A Modern Approach to Quilt Design (2017), and has a new book, Petal + Stem (2020). Since 2019, Amy has run a paper pieced Block of the Month program each year. She is an award winning quilter and her quilts have been exhibited at a number of quilt shows as well as museums. Amy is a national quilt teacher and lecturer. Amy lives in Massachusetts with her husband and three children. If she isn't sewing or spending time with the family, you might find her in the garden.

Intentional Piecing

This approximately one hour long trunk show will focus on the quilts found in my book, Intentional Piecing, but may include additional quilts as well. I will use these quilts to illustrate types of fussy cutting and to discuss fabric selection in general. How can you pick the best fabric for a pattern? How can a pattern really showcase a fabric design?

You might be wondering what I mean by intentional piecing. It's a conscious, deliberate process of fabric selection to suit a pattern design (or vice versa) or aesthetic. In my book, I designed each project to show one of the numerous ways that different types of fabrics can be used to their best advantage—from fussy cut motifs, to border prints, stripes, gradients, textured solids and even selvages. I also ask you to consider adapting your pattern for the perfect fussy cut and show you how! I absolutely love selecting fabrics for my projects and considering the best pattern to show them off.

Sacred Threads is an exhibition of quilts exploring themes of joy, inspiration, spirituality, healing, grief and peace/brotherhood. This biennial exhibition was established to provide a safe venue for quilters who see their work as a connection to the sacred and/or as an expression of their spiritual journey.

The objective is to create a dignified exhibition of artwork that touches on both spiritual and personal levels all those who view it. We want to share with others the experiences of quilters whose stories may be a source of healing and strength.

Entries to Sacred Thread Exhibitions are juried in by images for purposes of space and suitability of theme only. Works are not judged.
