September 2024 Newsletter

President's Corner

Let's go back to school!

I admit it, come September, I still think I should be signing up for classes. And honestly, no matter how old we are, we should never stop learning. It has been proven that learning something new provides a myriad of benefits:

- It gives you motivation to get out of bed & get going.
- It helps beat boredom & monotony.
- It boosts confidence & creates a more positive mindset.
- It keeps your brain healthy & more mentally flexible.
- It increases your level of happiness & lifts your sense of well-being.

Attending our guild meetings is a great way to learn something new. Each guest or member presenter has something to show us, tell us and teach us. Everyone has a different way of thinking, working and creating. These presentations give us a window into someone else's art. Who can't learn something from that?

Our new program chairs, Marianne Hamilton & Sharon Miller, are also ready to start sending us back to class! After our guild meeting in September, they have arranged for five tutorials on different ways to bind your quilt - by hand, by machine, with a flange, with big stitches and with prairie points. In October, after seeing beautiful antique quilts from Kay Butler, Marianne will be showing us how to starch fabric and use triangle paper to make multiples of half square triangles. And in November, our guild meeting will feature more tutorials from several of our very own talented members.

So let's all go "back to school" and learn something new!

Table Talk

Last month during the luncheon we had a sale of donations from Gloria Edmiston, Elaine Masso, Esther Montgomery, Jackie Granger and Kin West. These donations were spectacular and our spectacular prices led to a great sale! Thank you for the kind donations and thank you members for buying.

This month I won't be selling anything but Outreach may have a sale table. So once again bring your mad money! The Free Table will be full as I have also AQUIRED a bunch of stuff for the table.

Remember to go to the Membership table to pay your annual dues and fill out the directory form. Comb your hair and get your picture taken by Katie Wyatt for your best directory pic.

Bayside Quilters Meeting Minutes

August 14, 2024

The annual summer luncheon and installation of new officers was a great success! Jo Verne and I were so glad everyone enjoyed this wonderful social event. Jo, of course, did all the decor and most of the shopping. We had great help from Lou (also her fabulous crab dip!). The sides and desserts were delicious and all the contributed door prizes were fantastic.

Thank you all for coming and celebrating another year as a guild.

What is a Quilting Bee?

Quilting bees are all about getting together with like-minded quilters and relaxing over sewing.

If you quilt or sew, then you have probably heard or read the term, "quilting bee." But what is a quilting bee? A quilting bee is a get-together for people who sew and quilt to work on their individual or group projects with like-minded individuals. A "bee" is another word for a party or social function and in this case, it's a quilting party, thus it was named "quilting bee." But it's much more than just a party. (from: Krista Childers for FaveQuilts.com www.favequilts.com/Beginner-Basics/What-is-a-Quilting-Bee)

Before COVID, September 2013, Bayside had 13 Bees. Appliqué Bee, Appliqué In Bloom Bee, Bay Hundred Bee, Bee Crazy, Fiber Arts Bee, Hand Quilting Bee, Holiday Bee, Kat Nap Quilters Bee, Needle Turners Bee, Outreach Bee, Rhapsody Bee (Ricky Tims), Retreat Bee, Whip it Up Bee. I can even remember when we had a Birthday Bee. We now have 4: Modern Design & Critique Bee, Modern Quilting Bee, Outreach Bee and Talbot Hospice Veteran's Bee.

Do you have a specific interest that you enjoy the most and would be glad to spend time with like gals or be tickled to teach your favorite part of quilting to a new quilter? New quilters are so gratifying. They absorb information like a wet sponge. They haven't found exactly what they enjoy the most and are so willing to try new and different ways. Would you be interested in starting a bee about your favorite part of your hobby? We don't have an applique bee... hand or machine. We have no place for a beginner to go to learn how to applique. For the Modern quilt movement, they can join Modern Quilting Bee on the first Wednesday evening of the month. Or the Modern Design & Critique Bee (AKA Brackish Babes), on the third Tuesday of the month. A beginning quilter can always go to Outreach Bee meetings on the fourth Wednesday of the month to learn piecing and general quilting skills. We don't have a bee that does Handwork (no matter what the handwork is, quilting, knitting, crochet, etc.) How many members own and use Featherweights? How about you ladies in Londonderry? Easton Club East? New Members Bee?

If you are interested in starting or joining a bee, let me know and I'll see if I can connect the dots for everyone involved or interested. Bee Keeper: Chris Dorset

Donation price: 1 day $25, 2 days $40, 3 days $50

Feel free to bring a small portable iron & ironing pad; we will set up several irons around the room. We have a few rulers & mats to use in the closet. If you want to set up extra tables, the rule is you take them down & please put your chair back on the rack—this just helps Sonny & me at clean up time.

September Outreach News

At the September Guild meeting Outreach will have several goodies for sale so bring your wallets! We have fabric, started quilts that are worth finishing, notions, rulers, storage boxes – lots of interesting things. We were gifted things from several women whose mothers had to stop quilting.

Many thanks for all of you Outreach regulars – we couldn't do it without you. It's very gratifying for Pat, Chris, Judy and me to arrive at Immanuel Lutheran on the 4th Wednesday and see so many cheerful faces ready to sew. And so many of you who just 'drop in' with quilts, mammo pillows, to pick up a kit or two. Outreach members' production is prodigious!! Please know whether you make 1 mammo pillow, 5 quilts, cut fabric on the one Wednesday you can make the meeting, bring scones sometimes (thanks Sharon Perry), just come once a year, we value your contribution!!!

A synopsis of our last month's efforts, August donations! Ladies, look at what Outreach delivered at the end of August!

From bottom to top:

Caroline Co. Dept. of Social Services, Child Advocacy Program, 8 quilts, 1 pillowcase.

Caroline Family Support Center, 12 quilts, 13 hats.

Talbot Co. Early Head Start and Health Dept.'s Healthy Families, 13 quilts, 13 hats.

Talbot Hospice, 9 quilts, and Christmas stockings finished and ready to deliver: 86 – thanks Katie Wyatt (77) & Mary Chaplain (9).

A big thank you to all who have helped Outreach send items to those who need and appreciate a warm hug from a quilt!

Join us at the Immanuel Lutheran Church, Easton, Wed., September 25, 10:15-2. We have lots going on, Christmas Stockings (Update Need: 400 to Chapel District Elementary, Grandparents Club 200+, Talbot County Early Head Start and Talbot County Health Department's Healthy Families Program 100, Caroline Family Support Center 100), handwork, making quilts, stuffing pillows, etc. Lots of fun and laughter.

BE THERE OR BE SQUARE!!

One month closer to our annual fundraiser!

November 15-16
Handmade Market
Our sale to the public

October 16
Maker's Day

When we work together to make items for the sale

Be sure to mark your calendar to attend the Bayside Quilters Maker's Day on October 16 at the Trappe Firehouse, 9 am - 3 pm. This is a great way for you to support the guild and spend some quality time (any time spent sewing is quality time!) with other members. We will sew items that will be sold at the Handmade Market with all proceeds going to the guild. There will be plenty of kits available with all the materials you need to finish a project. Just bring a sewing machine, a few notions and lunch. We will supply irons, cutting mats, and light snacks to keep you fueled.

PUBLICITY NEEDS YOU

The Handmade Market is just around the corner, at least from a publicity point of view. Lou Diefenderfer, Kin West & I are the members that are developing an advertising campaign this year. All of us need to work to make this another successful fund raiser for Bayside Quilters. Our main advertising dollars are going to ads in the Attraction Magazine. Another way for us to get the public interested, as well as pay for flyer & rack card printing, is to have sponsors. We will be contacting various businesses for sponsorship at a $25, $50, $75 and $100 levels.

Kin, our design guru, has made space for sponsors on the flyer and rack cards. We will also have a "Sponsor Board" that will be displayed in the entrance. We can add supporter names at any time to the Sponsor Board. However, the $75-$100 sponsors are needed by August 30, 2024 .

The placement of sponsor names depends on the amount:

$25 for a business card size name on the Sponsor Board.

$50 for a larger business card on the Sponsor Board.

$75-$100 contributors will have their names on the front of the flyer and the back of the rack cards.

BONUS-You or your family can be a sponsor, anonymously, if you prefer.

If you want to contact a business, please check with one of us before you do to prevent a business being contacted by more than one person.

We are a non-profit and will provide all sponsors with a receipt.

Questions? Please contact me at 410-725-4323 or my email nitabnitab@yahoo.com; Lou Diefenderfer, 410-924-1764, sisternbelle@aol.com & Kin West, 410-812-3101, kinwest5550@gmail.com

AM Lecture: Kestrel Michaud

Presenting

Kestrel's Creations (a trunk show)

If you have never seen Kestrel's art quilts, you are in for a real treat. She labels herself as a classically-trained, imaginative realism fine artist with a passion for illustrating in fabric.

Her art quilts are made with intricate fabric piecing which assembles into a quilt that looks like a beautiful painting. Her work has won more than 50 local, regional, national and international awards.

Here are a few of her more recent creations.

AM Lecture: Kay Butler

Presenting

“My Antique Quilt Journey: A Quilt Collecting Passion”

Kay began her quilting journey 30 years ago when she first made an Amish crib quilt for her newborn daughter. The quilting stitches of that little Amish quilt were real toe catchers, but that first project fueled a lifelong passion of quilt adventures and quilting projects. Kay is a past president of the Heartland Quilt Guild of the Eastern Shore and the Helping Hands Quilt Guild of Dover. She is presently a member of five quilt guilds! She is an avid antique quilt collector, quilt historian and conservator and is a member of the American Quilt Study Group. She has taught in the Caroline County School for 31 years and is now embracing her retirement years teaching the next generation about quilting. Kay enjoys making patterns from antique quilts and reproduces those patterns with modern fabrics.

Afternoon Workshop 1-4PM: Marianne Hamilton

Scarlet Star Mini Quilt Class Fee: $20

Come and learn about the benefits of starching fabric for precision piecing and how to make half square triangles using triangle paper (which is included in the price of the class).

This mini quilt will finish at 14" by 14" or make a not so mini quilt finishing at 28" by 28" with a different size triangle paper. This little quilt would be great in holiday colors or done with modern brights.

The class will include lunch (sandwich, chips, cookie, drink) and door prizes. Lou is generously donating a free camp door prize!!! (You have to be there to win.)

Sewing a Pineapple Block
Using the Creative Grids Trim Tool

In this workshop, Michele and Dael will teach you how to use this wonderful device. It's really fun to use and the accuracy is amazing. Choose between two size blocks: a 6 inch mini or a larger 10 inch. Purchase of the appropriate sized ruler is recommended but not required. Feel free to share with a friend. Rulers may be purchased at Covenant Quilting.

The blocks are appealing to both traditional and modern quilters, depending on your fabric choices.

Beginners are welcome. Class fee: $20 with an option to purchase lunch for $5. And, yes, there will be door prizes!

Attendees will need to bring their sewing machine. A supply list along with instructions on pre-class prep will be provided via email.
